McCormick & Schmick's
One East Wacker Drive

When we heard Nick & Tony's was closing, we were forlorn. What was going to happen to one of our favorite outdoor patios in Chicago? Lucky for us, the venerable McCormick & Schmick's opened a second location in the space and it has become the destination of choice for locals and tourists alike.

With a patio that seats 120, a great bar scene, a lovely dining room with cozy alcoves hidden by curtains for privacy ("snugs") and a marvelous private dining room that can be customized for everything from pharmaceutical presentations to rehearsal dinners, McCormick & Schmick's has something for everyone.

With a menu that changes twice daily and features more than 30 types of fish, this is the go-to place for seafood. On the day we dined at McCormick & Schmick's, we counted five different types of oysters, ten different seafood appetizers and the wild salmon celebration. This was in addition to fish prepared any which way you can imagine - roasted, blackened, flash-fried, grilled, battered, sautéed and baked - just to mention a few.

To begin, we loved the flash-fried fresh calamari with a trio of dipping sauces - traditional cocktail, sherry mayonnaise and orange horseradish marmalade. The piping hot coconut shrimp were served with a divine horseradish marmalade. Not everyone is a fan of oysters but our table loved them so much we just had to order a second round of the large sampler. We like that McCormick & Schmick's has 25 wines by the glass priced between $6.00 and $13.00 and some of our favorite beers on tap including Stiegl and Anchor Steam.

If that does not get you excited enough to run right over to McCormick & Schmick's to have a cold one with some fabulous fish, you must try their $1.95 happy hour menu. It is stocked with such favorites as the half pound cheeseburger or Cajun burger, Mahi cakes, chipotle hummus, fried green tomatoes and buffalo chicken wings. The happy hour food menu is offered in the bar from 3:30 to 6:30 Monday through Friday and 9:30 to 11:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and all day on Sunday.

During the summer months, McCormick & Schmick's has a rockin' band out on the patio for your entertainment on Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

During the month of July 2007, mention AS YOU WISH with your reservation or bring this flyer and each guest will receive a complimentary dessert with purchase of an entree.

Don't miss those fleeting Chicago summer days! Head over to McCormick & Schmick's patio for fresh seafood, cool drinks and hot music.

Enjoy!
